Programs

September Meeting:

September 6th, 7 pm is the first meeting of the year and we are starting with lots of beautiful works accomplished from attendees of the International Calligraphy Conference (Seattle) held in Bellingham, WA, during July. Katy Bayliss will be collecting Capital Calligraphers dues for the next year, $20.00.

Work party for AOCC table decorations, Saturday, September 22, Capital Manor Art Room. Time TBA.

We are planning an exciting and jammed packed day of calligraphy at the All Oregon Calligraphers Conference, October 27, 2018. The Capital Calligraphers have been active in providing instruction from a variety of excellent teachers on many different aspects of calligraphy. Please visit the website Capital Calligraphers.org for more information. Our keynote speaker is Holly Monroe who will be sharing her Pointed Pen Pizazz and Writing on Calfskin at the conference. She will also conduct 2, day long workshops, Thursday October 25, Decorated Letters on Handmade Paper and Sunday October 28, Fantastic Flourishes.

Upcoming Events

SHOWS: November Salem Library exhibit

Sept 6 goodies: Amber Baker and Caroline Tresider and Raffle item: Amber Baker.

Thank you Laura and Penny for your endless hours of making the Oregon State Fair Calligraphy Exhibit a huge success. Barbara, thanks for organizing the volunteers. Another big thanks to all the volunteers who lettered names and monitored the exhibit.

Capital Calligraphers Members have been very busy lately with the Oregon State Fair and preparing for AOCC (All Oregon Calligraphy Conference) 2018.

Updates will be announced at the meeting.
