

Capital Calligraphers - Salem, Oregon

WWW.CAPITALCALLIGRAPHERS.ORG • Contact@CapitalCalligraphers.org
Capital Calligraphers • PO Box 2204 • Salem, OR 97308

Info & Meeting Agenda for September 5, 2019 @ 7:00pm Capital Manor

Add Text Please join us as we start a new series of programs for our first Thursday Capital Calligraphers meetings. September 5, 2019, 7 pm. Lori Festa will teach us some techniques to make calligraphic animals using flat brush or pens. Bring 1/2 inch tool (or close to this size), favorite ink or large calligraphy marker, small container for watering down ink (bottle lid), palette for ink (plastic lid works), and practice paper.

We will have an evening of fun, catching up after the summer, and learning a simple but whimsical type of embellishment. Bring anything you have done over the summer (calligraphic?) that you would like to share.

All Oregon Calligraphers Conference, Saturday, Oct. 12, Corban University's Psalm Center. Registration opens August 31. Check out our website for more details – capitalcalligraphers.org. On our home page, click on the green AOCC button, then click the links to the classes and registration.

November exhibit at the Salem Public Library. Theme: "Winter" All Oregon Calligraphers Conference, Saturday, Oct. 12, Corban University's Psalm Center. Registration opens August 31. Check out our website for more details – capitalcalligraphers.org. On our home page, click on the green AOCC button, then click the links to the classes and registration.

November exhibit at the Salem Public Library. Theme: "Winter"

If you haven't turned in a 6x6 piece for the AOCC centerpieces, here's your final notice. Please bring them to our September meeting. Remember that the theme is "Create" and use any combination of black, white, red or gold. Just use a nice paper. We'll mount them on mat board. Here's your chance to contribute.

Thanks! Trish Hibler